Discover the best of Eastern Canada & New England during the glorious autumn season where the cool fall air turns the foliage a dazzling crimson and gold. Appreciate the colonial history, spectacular coastlines and maritime treasures of this unforgettable region.

Begin your tour in the Big Apple where you'll have a few days to experience the bright lights and everlasting buzz of New York City. From New York, cruise New England and stop in charming port cities including Bar Harbour and Portland. Continue along the eastern Canadian coastline where you'll be enchanted by quaint and idyllic villages of Nova Scotia, before following the St Lawrence River to Quebec City. Enjoy the French speaking province of Quebec where you'll fall in love with the French influenced culinary delights and unique culture that Quebec City and Montreal have to offer. Continue onto Canada's capital, Ottawa, before reaching the cosmopolitan city of Toronto, and finally, enjoy the awe-inspiring natural beauty of Niagara Falls.
