This tour takes you into the heart of the real Borneo, to Discover Sarawak, known as Bumi Kenyalang or "Land of the Hornbills". Wild Sarawak is a blend of tribal tradition and sprawling natural beauty. Journey into the untouched wilderness on a traditional longboat, experience the everyday living of the local Iban people and take a relaxing walking tour learning about the heritage of the capital Kuching.

Get up close and personal during feeding time with rehabilitated wild Orang Utans at Semenggok, snorkel amidst a wide variety of soft corals and colourful marine life on Satang Island and wonder at Mulu National Park. Relax at Damai Beach Resort at the end of your stay. Once visited, you will always remember the extraordinary natural wonders of this amazing, untouched part of Borneo.

Day 1: Australia - Kuching. Fly from Australia to Kuching via Kuala Lumpur.

Day 2: Arrive Kuching. Transfer to the hotel.
